

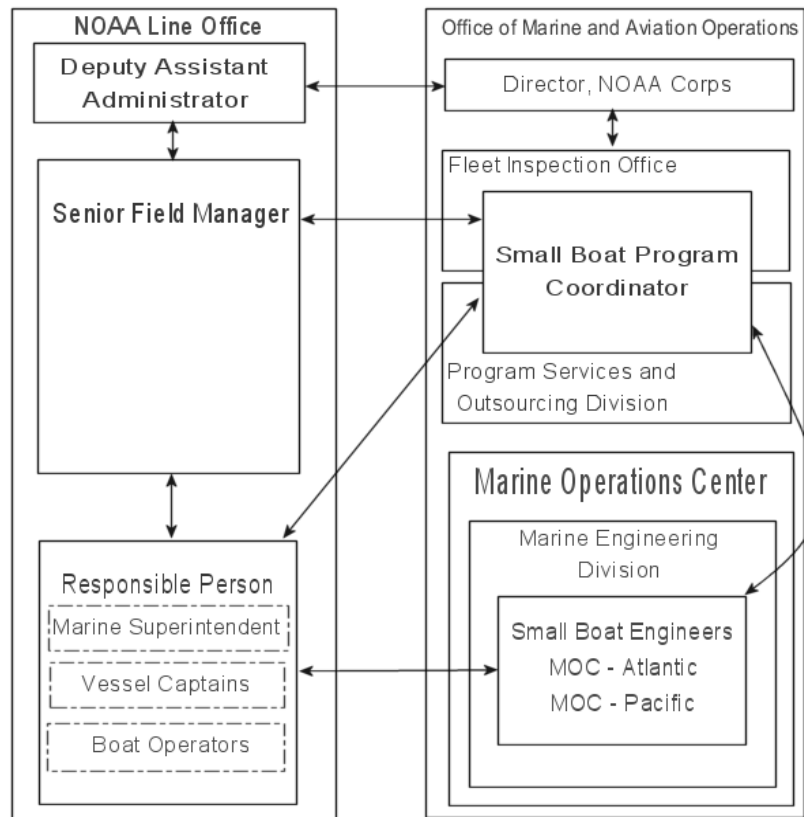

Figure 1 - Administrative Interaction Flow Chart

Interactions

1. Deputy Assistant Administrator and Director, NOAA Corps:

- Inspection Reports prepared for Director NOAA Corps and information copy sent to cognizant Line Office Deputy Assistant Administrator.
- Discussion and resolution of proposed operations which may present unacceptable risk or for which an abatement measure requires the allocation of substantial program resources.

2. Senior Field Manager and Small Boat Coordinator:

- Discussion of requirements, standards, and resultant resource issues.
- Development of operational risk management plans. Accident investigation requests and reports, discussion and approval of exceptions to small boat visual identification and marking standards.
- Filing and periodic review of approved operational risk management plans.
- Inspection Report responses prepared and filed with Small Boat Coordinator.

- e. Changes to NOAA small boat inventory.
- f. Discussion and advice on any matter relating to the management of small boats.

3. Responsible Person and Small Boat Coordinator:

- a. Regulatory requirement interpretation.
- b. Development of Operational Risk Management Plans.
- c. Routing of marine engineering support requests.
- d. Vessel inventory and hull identification number records.
- e. Coordination of inspection services.
- f. Advice and assistance with regulatory interpretation and operational risk management plan development.
- g. Development, suggestion, or submission of pertinent Small Boat Program website content.

4. Responsible Person and Small Boat Engineer:

- a. Advice and assistance with; contract oversight, vessel procurement, life cycle management, material condition, and mission support design assistance.
- b. Development, suggestion, or submission of pertinent Small Boat Program website content.

5. Small Boat Coordinator and Small Boat Engineer:

- a. Routing of Program engineering support requests,
- b. Maintenance and development of Small Boat Program website,
- c. Small boat project status and progress reports.

6. Small Boat Coordinator and NOAA Headquarters Management:

- a. Brief NOAA headquarters management on a regular basis of all small boat projects.
- b. Raise urgent concerns from Small Boat Engineers or Field Activities to NOAA headquarters management.